

The Catholic Commission for Social Justice (CCSJ) calls on citizens to demonstrate respect for all life

Leela Ramdeen, Chair of CCSJ, says: "All around us there are signs that many have lost respect for human life - at all levels of society. If we are to make any progress, we must take urgent action to stem the tide. Let's build a nation of which we can all be proud; a nation that is worthy of the struggles and sacrifices of our forebears; a nation in which the sanctity of life and the dignity of the human person are paramount."

The Catholic Church will be observing Respect For Life Week from Sat 12 Nov - Sat 19 Nov, 2011. CCSJ has lead responsibility for organising the week's activities.

The theme this year is: Respect Life: Promote Justice. CCSJ will be observing the 40th Anniversary of the 1971 Synod of Bishops document: Justice in the World. The document and comments on it can be read via a link on CCSJ's website:

Catholic Commission for Social Justice www.rcsocialjusticett.org/

A key quotation from the document reads as follows: "Action on behalf of justice and participation in the transformation of the world fully appear to us as a constitutive dimension of the preaching of the gospel."

All are welcome to attend the various events which include:
